Match & Group details

As I have already said, the match is coming up the 6th September. It's the European world cup qualifiers, and Armenia has an interesting group, actually: Hungary, Portugal, and Ireland. And this is such a good group! It's strange to say, but Armenia actually has a chance of qualifying into the world cup!!! The Armenia - Portugal match starts at 8PM By Yerevan time, the tickets can be bought on tickets.ffa.am, and you better hurry up until the tickets are sold out, if you wanna watch the match.

Not many people know, but I have actually met Cristiano's mum, no cap. It was the Euro 2024 going on. Portugal - Germany is coming up, and... I am going to Frankfurt from Lisbon! Just at the right time, when Ronaldo's mum was doing the same - going to Frankfurt from Lisbon to watch the Portugal-Slovakia match in Frankfurt. And I was lucky enough to fly business class just at the time when Ronaldo's mum came to business too!!!
